ENDA LECHAUHANNE LODGE #57, GREATER PITTSBURGH COUNCIL, BSA
NORTHEAST REGION, SECTION NE-4B CONCLAVE
HERITAGE RESERVATION, CAMP INDEPENDENCE, MAY 29-31

Enda Lechauhanne Lodge has the special privilege of welcoming the 2009 Section BE-4B Conclave to Heritage Reservation

What is A Conclave? A section conclave is a annual gathering of Arrowmen in a section, organized geographically within the region. Our section consists of 5 lodges from Western Pennsylvania and Maryland. Each lodge is given an opportunity to open their council camp to our brothers. Conclaves are an opportunity to meet new friends, learn more about the Order of the Arrow in training sessions, compete against one another in ceremonies, Native American dance, athletics and spirit. In addition, the youth members of the lodge elect section officers to represent them on a regional and national level. One of our own lodge members, Craig Conway, is currently servicing as Section Vice Chief.

Who Should Attend? This year's conclave will be the best ever! Not only do we have a great opportunity to exchange ideas on how to run our Order of the Arrow programs, but we will have a lot of fun, especially by serving as the host for the conclave! We came together from various areas of the state, but we are all bound in a single purpose... to make the Order a success in our home council. By attending as a staff member or delegate, we show pride in our Order of the Arrow lodge and will ensure the success of the event.

How Can I Help? As the service lodge for this event, we have much preparation work to do before the conclave. Two special service events have been set aside for members to prepare Heritage Reservation for conclave.

April 24-25, May 1-3, May 8-10 and May 23, 2009

A $5.00 fee will be charge for each of these two weekends and two Saturdays to help cover, the costs of the meals. A regular breakfast, bag lunch and dinner will be offered both weekends. Activities for all of these special service weekends identified above will be directed at preparing the Reservation in general, and independence specifically, for the Conclave weekend. We make accommodations available on both Friday and Saturday night if necessary, as the burden of cheerful service may require a late night or two to prepare the camp for conclave.

What Is The Cost Of Conclave And What Do I Get? The cost for conclave is $50.00 per person. This fee covers the cost of the meals and lodging for the weekend, an event patch, two special lodge flaps and a conclave t-shirt. Payment is due by 10 April 2009.

Conclave has something to interest everyone! Don't miss out on the fun! Get your registration form for the service weekends and conclave in early to secure your spot on the Conclave rooster. Serve with your fellow lodge brothers to prepare camp for our guests, and finally, join us at NE-4B 2009 Conclave for a fun filled weekend of Fellowship, Training and Excitement.
